Utah Home Health Agencies Receive HealthInsight Quality Award

Annual Recognition Encourages High Performance and Patient Satisfaction

January 11, 2018— Eleven home health agencies in Utah are being honored for their commitment to improving and promoting patient-centered care.

HealthInsight, a nonprofit, community-based collaborative working to improve health and health care for patients and providers, will present the 2017 Home Health HealthInsight Quality Award to the recipients at the Utah Association for Home Care annual holiday luncheon on Dec. 13, 2017.

In order for agencies to be considered for the award, they must meet three criteria:

- 1. The agency ranks in the 90th percentile using current ranking methods
- 2. The agency has no condition of participation-level deficiencies on its last Medicare certification survey
- 3. The agency demonstrates a quality improvement project that targets a quality measure and promotes at least one element of patient-centered care

"HealthInsight is proud to honor this year's home health Quality Award recipients. Eleven agencies went above and beyond to improve patient care and the quality of health care as a whole in Utah," said Rebecca Wilson, HealthInsight Utah project manager.

The 2017 HealthInsight Quality Award home health recipients are:

- At Home Health Care Salina
- Dignity Home Health of Utah American Fork
- Envision Home Health- Orem
- First Choice Home Health & Hospice Orem
