PRESS RELEASE

Devon Energy Donates $1,000 to UBMC EMS

Meeting Community Needs

August 17, 2012: The Emergency Medical Services team at Uintah Basin Medical Center recently received a $1,000 donation from Devon Energy Corporation.

Director of Public & Community Affairs for Devon, Wendi Schuur stated, "Devon Energy Corporation is committed to demonstrating its desire to be a good corporate citizen socially, environmentally and culturally through donations, which enhance the quality of life and meet community needs."

The local EMS crews serve the area from Ballard to Tabiona and everywhere in between. Seventy Five trained EMTs dedicate their time and skills to saving lives. Each month, our EMTs respond to approximately 100 emergency calls.

EMS Director, Von Johnson stated, "Our EMTs are trained and dedicated. We are passionate about patient care and the service we provide to our local communities. We are thankful for generous, community-minded companies like Devon Energy that recognize and value the service we provide."
