Family Education Night at The Villa

March 12, 2012: The Villa (Uintah Basin Healthcare Rehabilitation & Senior Villa) is now offering Family Education Nights. The sessions are approximately one hour long and are free of charge. The public is invited to attend.

This month's education night will feature guest speaker Deanne Quick, RN who will speak on Home Care Services. Home Care Services offers programs to clients of all ages in need of home care. With the support of a loving family and services from Home Care, there is an alternative to nursing homes for the aged, institutionalization for the handicapped, or a rehabilitation center for post-surgery and hospitalized patients. In addition, Hospice provides specialized care in dealing with the last stages of life.

Home Care staff is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Nurses, Physical Therapists, Occupational Therapists, Respiratory Therapists, Certified Nursing Assistants and Homemakers provide comprehensive care.

Learn how Home Care Services can help you or your loved ones. Attend this month's Family Education Night held in the main dining room at The Villa on Thursday, March 22nd at 3:00 PM. Refreshments will be served.
