Villa Residents are Victorious in Wii Senior Olympic Winter Games

February 3, 2012: Residents of THE VILLA (Rehabilitation & Senior Villa) traveled to Vernal to compete against residents from the Uintah Care Center in the third annual "Wii Senior Olympic Winter Games" hosted by local radio station KLCY on January 31, 2012.

Both teams cheered and played hard as they fought through three games of Wii Bowling for the grand prize, a Pride Easy Lift Recliner. The "Villa Villains" were victorious and defeated the Uintah Care Center's team. Laura "Strike Queen" Williams lead the Villa Villains to victory with 7 consecutive strikes. Eighty year old "Lay Em' Down" Leroy Freeman tied for second place with Edward "Scissor Hands" Myers. The Villa Villains Barbara "Spare Queen" Peterson came in with a sound third place.

Congratulations to our senior athletes for their hard work and spirited competition!
